Re: Longevity International Enterprises Corp./Maybelle Pang
MUR 4594

Dear Ms. Bell:

This letter is in response to your letter of January 28, 1998 which memorialized our telephone conversation on the same date.

After discussing the matter with Longevity International Enterprises, Inc. the following is our client's response:

1) With respect to interrogatory no. 10, and after doing further research into this matter, the following answer supplements our client's response:

Mr. Szeto Fu, Mr. Chang Lin-Teh, Mr. Chi-Tao Shan, and Mr. Stanley Huang were officers of China Airlines. Upon information and belief, Mr. Szeto Fu was Chairman of the Board, Mr. Chang Lin-Teh was president, Mr. Chi-Tao Shan was a vice-president, and Mr. Stanley Huang was a vice-president.

Mr. Sherman Wang was the president of Hwa-Mei Bank and Mr. Jen Fie Tun a vice-president of Bank of Canton.

Longevity is unaware of these individuals current place of employment or their nationality.

2) With respect to document request no. 4, we amend our objection to object to the time frame of the production. The objection is we do not believe requesting documents from January 1, 1984 is valid since the statute of limitations has clearly run. Without waiving this objection, my understanding is that for the time period from 1992 to 1996 please be advised that what was produced has been any and all documents relating to Hsu Chun-I, Louis Chang, Karl C.P. Wang as it relate to China Airlines, Ltd., Friends of Fasi, or Frank Fasi.

As for the period from 1984-1992 in its initial search of records, Longevity did not find such documents. However, to make sure that there are no such documents, a further search is being done and if any further documents are located, without waiving the objection, such documents will be produced.

Very truly yours,
